and be glad. Let my words be sweet for tomorrow I may have to eat them. He noticed there was no prayer before the Pledge of Allegiance at the beginning of the Town Board meeting. He congratulated all those who won the (recent) election, whether continuing or just beginning. He noted the great tragedy in Sutherland Springs, Texas, and asked for a moment of silence for those who had died, as well as similar tragedies in Los Angeles, Dallas, Missouri, WalMart, Boston, Las Vegas and Chicago. He urged the Town Board to have a special place in their heart for those who are being ignored, misrepresented, or taken advantage of, pursuing peace and godliness, working for equity (fairness and justice). Mr. Rankin also urged the Board to review the use and conduct of the Codes Department....return phone calls and acknowledge emails....be accessible when one requests to have a word with you....make suggestions to you. Be a good neighbor; in his opinion, gardening is an art and no homeowner should have to fear going to jail because someone does not like the way you garden, or where there is a container or garden items in the garden, nor because someone is sick and tired and calls the Codes Department of the Police, “..and that’s why I’m here tonight”.

FEMA buyout program - Update

Supervisor Tyksinski received an email yesterday from Tom Cowin, in response to an inquiry from Councilman Miscione; basically, Mr. Cowin stated that the buyout program is an extensive review process and the contracts signed and sent out two (2) months ago haven't been approved by the State or FEMA. According to the November 7, 2017, email, the contracts also require approval from several agencies before it becomes an (executed) approved contract. Further, demolitions are not typically done in the winter and might not take place until Spring or Summer of 2018. [Mr. Cowin is Program Manager, Mitigation Programs for the NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services.]

Late today, November 8, 2017, another email was received from Mr. Cowin stating that the Town could divulge the appraisal amounts to the homeowners, a reversal of what was initially stated, provided that the homeowners be made aware that they might not receive the exact appraisal amount. The homeowners have been notified of these latest communications. The Town Supervisor noted that the grant ends December 31, 2018.
